Project Concept Statement/Description

Please provide a typed overview (100 - 250 words) detailing significant aspects of the finished project. The statement should discuss design challenges, location

(city name), design solutions, and other pertinent aspects, but must not mention firm name, nor individuals involved. Entrants must include the year the project was completed. Design projects more than five years old will not be accepted. Projects should be submitted via the entry-submission form at utahdesignawards.com.

Rising Star

Rising Star nominees must have fewer than 10 consecutive years' experience in their field and must have completed at least one significant project. Nominations must be submitted by someone other than the nominee. Nominees will be contacted for complete portfolio, résumé, and professional photo. No fee is required for nomination.

Judging

An independent panel is selected from outside Utah. Judges are drawn from national media (print and television), respected academic institutions, private practice, and include nationally recognized names from design and architecture. Their expertise reflects a broad spectrum of related professions, including architecture, interior design, and landscape architecture. All judges' decisions are final.

Photography Terms

Entrants must secure and submit royalty / reuse-free photos from their photographer before submitting images (to run in Utah Style & Design / utahstyleanddesign.com at no additional charge). Image Use Agreement for Utah Style & Design Awards Submissions By submitting materials (including images, descriptions, and other content) to the Utah Style & Design Awards, you grant Utah Style & Design magazine a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, distribute, and publish the submitted content solely for the promotion and marketing of the Utah Design Awards program. This includes use in print, digital, and social media formats, as well as in future editorial and promotional campaigns related to the Utah Design Awards. Ownership of the original materials remains with the submitter. It is the entrant's responsibility to inform the photographer of these terms.

Guidelines and Additional Terms

Only entrants will receive an award. If other companies, designers, and/or homeowners contributed to the project and would like to receive an award, duplicate plaques may be purchased upon receipt of the winner letter at an additional cost of $105. Additional contributors will not be mentioned at the awards ceremony, on award plaque, or in the magazine unless his/her company was listed as a "co-entrant." Important note: If you list a co-entrant on an entry, the co-entrant's name will appear as a co-winner with your company name in the magazine and on the award plaque if your submission is selected as a winner. There is a separate opportunity on the submission form to list others who contributed to the project; this area is optional and those you list here will NOT receive an award plaque if your entry is selected as a winner. Their names, however, may be featured in the USD magazine editorial. If a category doesn't receive sufficient support, Utah Style & Design retains the right to remove the category from that year's competition. In this event, the entry fee would be refunded for the affected entries. Failure to comply fully with contest rules may result in disqualification. Entry fee is non-refundable and will not be returned (even if entry is determined to be ineligible or disqualified). Utah Style & Design is not liable for lost, stolen, ineligible, misdirected, damaged, mutilated, or postage-due entries. Winning submissions become the property of Utah Style & Design magazine. Utah Style & Design retains legal / publishing rights of the photography indefinitely after publishing the Summer 2027 Design Awards issue.
